

WINE

Roster Vol. 9

Our wine list consist of a short but precise list of Champagnes as well as sparkling wines. A wide range of White and Red wines, and some top quality dessert wines. One would find a German and Burgundy driven-attitude if taken a deeper attention into the list as we do love Riesling & Pinot Noir grapes and anything similar to them such as top Nebbiolo wines of Italy.

Sweet Wines	Small Glass	Large Glass	Small Carafe	Carafe	Bottle
8 cl	12 cl	16 cl	25 cl	50 cl	75 cl

Sometimes a glass of wine is not enough, but a bottle might be too much also. So we decided to make it easier for all of us: You can order our “By The Glass wines” also “By The Carafe” for 25cl and 50cl portions, too. You will see the prices listed.

We also started a “Wine Theme” by November 2018 which is planned to change 5 or 6 times per year and we focus on those wines inside the BTG (By The Glass) selection, you will see a title for it. We work hard on our wine selection and keep it up-to-date by following the trends and classics all around the world. By providing honest, delicious, and reasonably priced wines in a wider & bigger selection, we differ from the mainstream. In fact, we want to do our part in changing the Finnish wine culture.

As we say in Finnish, Aurinkoisin Terveisin,
Wine Team Roster

Theme of The Month:

Finnish Winemakers

Yes they exist... And yes they do make some seriously good wine! In France, Italy, Spain, Germany, New Zealand... This list has been a dream of our Chef Sommelier Deniz, a dream come true list! Here we listed some of the best picks from Finnish winemakers as our Theme Of The Month, such as Outi Jakovirta, Jarkko Peränen, Nea&Juha Berglund, Samuli Pasanen, Toni Immanen, Sukula Family and Kimmo Siren. Someday Atte Sukki will be in the line up too... Enjoy the selection, hölökyn kölökyn! :)

Theme of The Month:

Finnish Winemakers

By Chef Sommelier Deniz Löktas

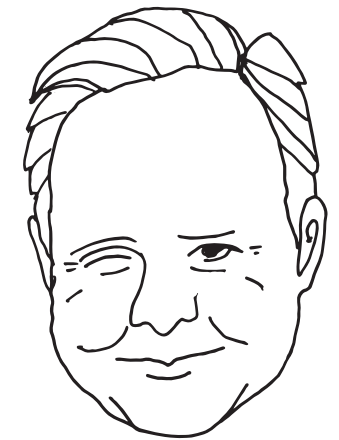

OUTI JAKOVIRTA

My dear friend Outi, whom I met in Tampere when I was rolling around with a bunch of wine freaks including the famous wine critic/author Jamie Goode (yes :) he came to Tampere), she is one of the most talented and down-to-earth professionals I ever met. She started working with wines in 1994 by travelling around the globe following the grape harvests. In 2004 she moved to New Zealand to study winemaking, and after her studies she started a job as a winemaker for Julicher Estate. Outi left Julicher Estate in 2015 to start her own business "Three Barrel Project" together with her sister Suvi and her friend Samuli Pasanen. Three Barrel Project produces wines from New Zealand and Europe.

TONI IMMANEN

Toni Immanen is first of all a very dear friend of us, and secondly, he is one of the very well known wine professionals in Finland, running the wine importing company Viinitie. Toni has started the Raja Riesling operation in 2012. Raja means "border" in Finnish and it is a small Riesling vineyard in the French-German border. Thanks to EU regulations, the vineyard is only a walking distance from Germany to France. Basically you cross the border by walking directly to the vineyard and start the harvest. I was a part of 2018 harvest as a harvest worker with Toni and it was quite interesting, fun and quite a lot of work to do too, but cooking in the evening at Fritz Becker's and popping up blind tasting bottles from his cellar during the dinner is priceless :)

JARKKO & JOSEPHIN PERÄNEN

Originally from Jyväskylä, Jarkko already has been working in Chianti and he bought a small farm in 2002 in the middle of the Chianti Classico, in Panzano. Since then with his wife Josephin, they make some of my favorite wines from the region as a micro-estate. Elegant, fresh wines with minimum intervention. Recently Gran Selezione 2013 got an incredible score of 95 points in the well-respected Decanter Blind Tasting Panel and that wine and as well as the house became world-famous. Did anybody underestimate Jarkko and his skills ever? If so, now he has replied all doubts by making some of the best red wines in the world.

JYRKI & RIIKKA SUKULA

Riikka and Jyrki Sukula had been running their wine importing business in Finland which I had the chance to taste the imported wines back then. They also decided to settle down in Piedmont, Italy and they bought a small land in 2005, and established the Sukula Estate in 2006 as well as the first vintage of their Langhe Rosso is made in 2006. Today, this cute and little family with two daughters are living in Italy, and Riikka visits Finland every now and then. Jyrki visits Finland much often since he is still involved in restaurant business and TV shows actively.

KIMMO SIREN

Our friend Kimmo, originally from Helsinki, left to France in 2012 to study winemaking. Now he continues his studies in Germany. Since 2015, he has been working with Kai Schätzel in Rheinhessen as an enologist and he makes the only red wine in Weingut Schätzel portfolio, which is listed in our wine menu. At the moment he does a research on yeast activities in wine.

JUHA & NEA BERGLUND

Here is a little wine family for you! <3 Juha Berglund purchased Chateau Carsin in the Right Bank of Bordeaux in 1990 and his daughter Nea did grow up inside wine culture and she took over the winemaking in 2015. They do make different barrel and amphora experiments and they work as natural as possible with the minimum intervention possible. Vineyards are taken care all year around very carefully by the team. The wines are really delicious and food friendly, and my friend Nea is really fun and sweet <3 She is also very open-minded, therefore she started her own label "Charivari wines" which is "celebration" in French culture, and she tests the boundaries of natural winemaking and other trials with this project. We have two Charivari wines listed.
